

Warning: Sony and law firm Hogan Lovells are allowed to commit crimes

We, Vladimir Miroshnichenko and Vitaly Pilkin, are inventors.

Sony and Hogan Lovells have committed multiple crimes in order to steal our patent on the invention which is used in game console Sony PlayStation Vita.

We have submitted to law enforcement agencies in Russia proofs evidencing said crimes but they have refused to carry out criminal investigation of said crimes. Nothing surprising for Russia bogged down in corruption.

However, we were very surprised after we have submitted to the US Department of Justice proofs evidencing said crimes. It turned out that the US Attorney General Loretta Lynch knowingly and willfully obstructed criminal investigation by the US Department of Justice of said crimes.

Thus, Sony and Hogan Lovells have not been prosecuted. Sony and Hogan Lovells were allowed to commit crimes and they repeatedly committed them being released from liability.

Thus, it turns out the law does not extend to Sony and Hogan Lovells.

So, today Sony and Hogan Lovells have robbed us and tomorrow Sony and Hogan Lovells can rob somebody else.

Therefore, we are sure that this story applies to everyone.

We have submitted to influential media proofs evidencing commission by Sony and Hogan Lovells of said crimes, nevertheless, they did not want to publish information about said crimes.

We are sure no one can be above the law.

No one can be released from liability for committed crimes.

The criminal must be punished.

If it becomes widely known that Sony and Hogan Lovells are in fact criminal companies, only that perhaps will force law enforcement agencies to carry out bona fide criminal investigation of said crimes committed by Sony and Hogan Lovells and thus to deter Sony and Hogan Lovells from commission of new crimes in the future.

That is why we appeal to you with this statement.
